Attendance

From the Students’ Handbook: "Students are expected to be present for all class meetings of any course for which they are enrolled. Per University Procedure A13.02, effective September 1, 1996, students are responsible for learning about and complying with the attendance policy stated in the catalog, Student’s Guidebook, and/or faculty syllabus. It is the prerogative of the faculty to drop students from courses in which they have accrued excessive absences as defined in the course syllabus.” Student Handbook
Attendance

- Absence is acceptable without penalty ONLY IF official documents are presented.
  - E.g., medical notes, registration receipts for conferences or workshops, airplane tickets for family emergency
- Have to notify me early if you need to be absent

Grading Policy

F: Less than 59%
Lab/HW - Grading Policy

- Good Programming Style is required.
  - Comments
  - Indentation
  - Variable Naming

- You have to attend to the labs and begin the task in the lab, otherwise zero will be given (no late submission accepted).
- You have to sign up the attendance sheet when you come in the lab.
- More than 10 minutes late will be considered as absence.
- All completed task (only source files) has to be submitted to eCollege (Dropbox).
- If you complete the task, please ask me to grade. (still submit the program to eCollege)
Lab/HW - Grading Policy

- If you don’t complete the task during the lab, you will have extra time to complete it.
- You can submit the completed task until midnight. However, ONLY IF you did your best to complete the task throughout the WHOLE lab time, you will be eligible to resubmit.
- If you really want to stop the task for some reasons, you can tell me that you don’t want to continue it. Then I will give you partial points.
